AUTHORIZATION AND ASSIGNMENT

I request that _____ (hereafter referred to as "this counselor") provide psychotherapy services to me and if applicable, to my minor child(ren).

About Counseling: This counselor believes you, as the client, have the capacity to resolve your problems with this counselor's assistance in clarifying issues and exploring potential alternatives. The counseling relationship is a partnership where you, the client, are the best judge of your interests, desires and needs while the counselor offers training, experience and tools to assist in this process. Techniques used may include insight, experiential, cognitive-behavioral-therapy, family therapy, guided imagery, hypnosis, motivational interviewing, play therapy and homework you/your child(ren) will do on your/his/her own. The ultimate responsibility for change rests with the client. You have the right to decline any technique or procedure. As with any changes, the client may experience times of discomfort as you explore new styles of relating to others and yourself.

Length of treatment varies by goal and individual. You and this counselor will mutually agree on the goals of your treatment, and you right to terminate counseling at any time. This counselor does request that any termination include one week's notice.

All sessions will be in person. Although these sessions may be very psychologically intimate, the relationship is a professional one subject to applicable ethical guidelines. This contract will be limited to counseling sessions.

Referrals: If you or this counselor determine that a referral is needed, this counselor will provide alternatives including programs and/or other professionals who may be available to assist you. You will be responsible for contacting and evaluating those referrals. In some cases, coordination of professional services may be required. Any exchange of information will only be made with express written permission from you.

Fees: I agree to a fee of $_____ per 50 minute session. All group sessions (other than couple and/or family therapy) are $_____ per group. If I billing a third party payer, I agree to pay the co pay amount of $_____ at the time the service is rendered.

I agree to pay $_____ for missed appointment unless I provide this counselor with notice of cancellation 24 hours in advance. I understand that the missed appointments will be noted on the bill, and that third part payers (if applicable) do not pay for missed appointments, and I am responsible for paying for those missed appointments.

If this counselor is requested by me or subpoenaed by me or someone else to testify in any court related proceeding in which I am a party, I agree to pay the fee of $_____ per hour for preparation and testifying time (including depositions) and $.25 per page for record photocopying. If this counselor's testimony is required by another party, she will attempt to obtain payment from that party, however, the ultimate responsibility for payment is mine and I agree to pay all costs and time incurred prior to or at the time of testimony.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLIENT

1. You have the right to be treated fairly and with respect.
2. You have the right to ask questions at any point in the therapeutic process.
3. You have the right to know the policy concerning canceled appointments (as during vacations, illness, etc.).
4. You have the right to request another therapist and receive competent referrals.
5. All people, including your therapist, have biases and values. You have the right to a therapist who will acknowledge personal values and will not attempt to impose them on you. The job of the therapist is to help you find your own way.
6. You have the right to ask about your therapist's training, theoretical orientation, techniques, and supervised experience.
7. You have the right to ask about your therapist's policy regarding confidentiality. You have the right to grant or deny permission to your therapist to discuss your progress with others.
8. You have the right to know your therapist's policy regarding medication. A medical doctor (M.D. or D.O.) is the only person who can prescribe medication. You have the right to take or not to take medication, to discuss pros and cons of it, and to be involved in the decision. If you disagree with your therapist about whether you should take medication, you have the right to seek another opinion.
9. You have the right to discuss what is happening in your session with other people and to consider and accept or reject this feedback about your progress.
10. You have the right to have a consultation with another therapist if you wish. It is usually a good idea to discuss your wish for a consideration with your present therapist, whether or not your therapist agrees. If after such discussion you still wish to have the consultation, it is important for you to trust your own feelings and use your own judgment.
11. You have the right to stop counseling when you want, whether or not your therapist agrees with your decision. It is usually worthwhile to discuss with your therapist your reasons for wanting to stop your sessions. However, the decision is always yours.
12. In the event of an "emergency" you are encouraged to go to the nearest Hospital Emergency Room or to call Green Oaks Hospital at 972-991-9504. If you leave a message, your therapist will call you back as soon as possible.
